

Molecule Labs

What is Molecule Labs?

Molecule Labs is a subsidiary of Molecule Foundation, an organization that invests in pre-launch blockchain projects with thousands of members. Molecule Labs in Q1 2024, Molecule Labs has quickly built a strong global presence, with strategic relationships in key blockchain markets, especially in Turkey, China, and Vietnam. These connections help us provide our clients with easy access to fast-growing regions, allowing them to expand first in targeted local markets or scale globally, depending on their goals. We always put the interests and growth of our partners first
